

Feng Shui Residential Questionnaire

Please take the time to review these questions and email your answers to me, prior to your consultation. (carol@carolcannongroup.com). We will review them in person so I can be sure to focus on your most important areas. Please also have available your floor plan and site plan (or survey) for review at your consultation. I will draw on them, so please make a copy if you do not want the original marked up. If you do not have formal plans, please sketch to the best of your ability.
